START TALKING. Find a conversation starter for your group.

- Come up a list of the three most controversial teachings of Jesus.

START THINKING. Ask a question to get your group thinking.

- What are the most common views about Jesus?

START SHARING. Choose a question to create openness.

- What sets the teachings of Jesus apart from all other types of teaching?
- How have you seen the teachings of Jesus influence your current world?
- What makes the teachings of Jesus relevant and timeless? How can a person living in a primitive and antiquated time still be considered a relevant teacher in the 21st century?
- On Sunday, Luke mentioned a few areas of history that have been changed by Jesus. What other parts of history might have been changed by the teachings of Jesus?
- What teaching of Jesus would you consider “most” impactful in 2019?
- Why might it be a good approach to focus gospel conversations on the person of Jesus? How have you leveraged the person and teachings of Jesus in gospel conversations?
- Do you have to believe every teaching of Jesus to be saved? Why or why not? What might be considered the “non-negotiable” teachings of Jesus that people must accept in order to receive salvation?
- Respond to this statement: “There is a God-shaped hole in all of us.”

START DOING. Commit to a step and live it out this week.

- Consider how you might engage someone with a conversation about Jesus this week.

START PRAYING. Be bold and pray with power.

- Please pray for those seeking answers about Jesus in our regular Sunday gatherings.
